

Crescere insieme:
Italiano sostenibile per un mondo inclusivo e consapevole.
Corso di formazione per insegnanti di Italiano.

Rutgers University - Department of Italian in cooperation with the Consulate General of Italy in New York invites applications from Teachers of Italian to participate in the online course *Crescere Insieme: Italiano Sostenibile per un mondo inclusivo e consapevole, taught in Italian and directed by Professor Carmela Scala. The course will have four online synchronous classes and some asynchronous components for 30 hours total. We strongly encourage Teachers of Italian (K-12) from the Tri-State area to apply. However, the course is open to teachers of all backgrounds and based in different areas of the United States, Italy, and the world. This workshop counts for professional development credits.

If you have any questions, please contact our speaker, Prof. Carmela Scala (carmela.scala@rutgers.edu) or the governmental lecturer Rosario Scalia (rosario.scalia@rutgers.edu).

To register, please complete this Google Form by November 7th 2024:
